

Co-packing – A win for business

The diverse world of co-packing

Welcome to the world of sachets, flow packs and membrane composite boxes! Don't worry, even if you're not (yet) familiar with these terms – we're here to help! From these and many other different packaging options and materials, we help you find the right solution for your individual requirements. Increase your success with our customised packaging solutions.

Let's work together

Are you looking for innovative and unique flavour solutions? Benefit from the high quality of our spicy raw materials and the variety of different packaging materials and options. We not only offer you the delicious content, but also deliver the packaging solution at the same time.

We pack individually for you:

- Herbs
- Spice mixes
- Convenience components, e.g.: marinades, sauces, stocks and "ready-to-use" convenience solutions

We find suitable solutions for:

- Manufacturers in the food industry
- Start-ups
- Meat processing companies
- Manufacturers of kitchen and BBQ equipment

There are many options: the BBQ sauce for the spare ribs, the seasoning mixture for the food box for cooking at home, or an individual mixture and precisely the right quantity for your own production, industrial production or company canteen.

We bring your ideas to life and provide packaging for a wide range of applications:

- Sample packs
- Promotional articles
- Gifts for Christmas, birthdays or other special occasions
- Packaging for the end customer sector (including retail)
- Packaging for your own creations for over-the-counter sales

It's this easy:

Clarify any questions directly with your NovaTaste contact person. We handle the entire project in-house and offer you a complete package from the initial idea to the finished end product. This means that you can rely on smooth, straightforward processing.

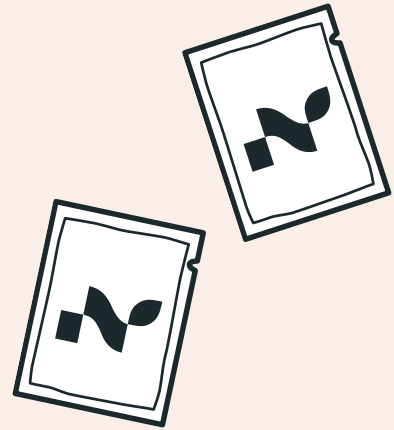

We provide flexible, simple support, in the areas where our assistance is needed.

Here's how it works:

Do you have an idea? Contact your NovaTaste contact person directly.

How to get in touch:

office@novataste.com

+43/(0)662-6382-0

+49/(0)8654-470-0

Together, we will clarify the best solution for your requirements. We will present packaging to you and, if not already available, develop a suitable bespoke specification for your product.

You will receive a sample to view, if requested.

We produce your product (spice mixture, herb mixture, liquid product, ...) in one of our NovaTaste production facilities, fill it into the finalised packaging and deliver it to your desired address.

Depending on the complexity, product and quantity, you will receive individual feedback regarding processing and delivery times.
